0 of 0 review helpful Decent succinct intro for the novice By Yoda Any review of this book would have to start out by mentioning that is part of Osprey Publishing rsquo s ldquo Campaign rdquo series As such it is relatively short at only

96 pages Plus a very rough third of these pages consist of illustrations of one type or another i e maps contemporaneous photographs of vessels and leading figures etc Thus if The only major fleet engagement of World War I and one of the great battles of naval history the 1916 Battle of Jutland has been surrounded by controversy ever since The British public felt Admiral Jellicoe had failed a reaction rooted in a hundred years of the Nelson cult a conviction that anything short of a Trafalgar style annihilation a poor substitute for victory True the German Fleet had sunk more ships and suffered fewer casualties but never again di From the Publisher Highly visual guides to history s greatest conflicts detailing the command strategies tactics and experiences of the opposing forces throughout each campaign and concluding with a guide to the battlefields today
