Books):

1 of 1 review helpful Heavy History By Jo L Willis It's a history not a novel And pretty heavy at that Lots of repetition but I guess war was the major form of entertainment in the 11th century so they pursued it over and over And since not all sources led to clear conclusions there were some jumps in the continuity But overall it provided a good view of life in the dark ages of Northern Italy and France Not a plac Chronicles the life of Matilda of Canossa renowned for her relationship with Pope Gregory VII depicts her as one of the most influential female figures in history and describes the author's visits to related sites From Publishers Weekly The dramatic life of Matilda of Canossa 1046-1115 could easily be the plot of a Pirandello play there are papal intrigues warring medieval factions and even an ill fated marriage to a hunchback that ends in murder Spike's marvelous bi
