Correspondence:

The intimate world of Niccolò Machiavelli comes to life in this first complete collection in English of the letters he wrote and received. Spanning his adult life from 1497 until his death in 1527 these letters to and from his friends and compatriots — some of whom such as Francesco Guicciardini and Francesco Vettori were among the most influential thinkers of the day — reveal his personality and present a panorama of life people and critical. From Library Journal Specialists in several facets of Renaissance culture will welcome this translation of the letters of the man hailed as the first modern political theorist. The text and to a great extent the notes rest on Volume 3 of Franco Gaeta's Opere.
