1 of 1 review helpful A profound oral history that will leave you wiser though definitely sadder By Gouverneur Nietzsche wrote There is only a perspective seeing only a perspective knowing Portelli's powerful reconstruction of the Nazi massacre of 335 civilians in retaliation for 33 German casualties in a partisan attack in Rome through his artful weaving of the memories and judgments of surviving perpetrators. On March 24 1944 Nazi occupation forces in Rome killed 335 unarmed civilians in retaliation for a partisan attack the day before. Portelli has crafted an eloquent multi-voiced oral history of the massacre of its background and its aftermath. The moving stories of the victims the women and children who survived and carried on the partisans who fought the Nazis and the common people who lived through the tragedies of the war together paint a many-hued portrait of on
