0 of 0 review helpful Good read By Kindle Customer Well this was a good read I read it straight through over the course of two days The character development was superb The inter play between characters was superb as the book used it to tell a complex story of war the relationships that formed then dissolved in a way that made the reader feel a part of the story On the other hand I expected to read more about the JOURNEY INTO WINTER a novel is centered around the Finnish Soviet war of 1939 1940 where tiny Finland is invaded by Stalin's new army it was literally ski's against tanks in the coldest winter of the decade A young American half Finnish returns to Finland and finds himself caught up in the struggle for Finland's very survival About the Author Fred Brogger has produced many notable television drama classics including HEIDI DAVID COPPERFIELD JANE EYRE KIDNAPPED movie THE RED PONY John Steinbeck and A GIRL NAMED SOONER as well as some fifteen movies of the week television films
