the fall is a memoir like no other its 424 short passages match the number of steps taken by diogo mainardis son tito as he walks with great difficulty alongside The Fall: A father's memoir in 424 steps:

0 of 0 review helpful Poignant story By Book Woman This tells a father's story of his son It is more how the father deals with his own emotions of acceptance of Titos disability than sadness in the child By the end of the narrative it feels as though his father's anger has subsided and he can let his focus on Tito's impairments rest 0 of 0 review helpful Eventually I really liked how he THE FALL is a memoir like no other Its 424 short passages match the number of steps taken by Diogo Mainardi's son Tito as he walks with great difficulty alongside his father through the streets of Venice the city where a medical mishap during Tito's birth left him with Cerebral Palsy As they make their way toward the hospital where both their lives changed forever Mainairdi begins to draw on his knowledge of art and history seeking to better explain a tragic Genius ... Each of the text's 424 fragmentary entries exemplifies the wild illogical path the mind takes on the way to getting a grip or to losing one ... Mainardi has crafted a masterly work in the best memoir tradition placing emphasis less
