The Littorio Class: Italy's Last and Largest Battleships 1937-1948:

27 of 27 review helpful Definitive book on the Littorio class By Mark Hinds This book covers the Italian Littorio class battleships in detail It appears to be an English translation of the 2010 book Le Navi da Battaglia Classe Littorio 1937 1948 second edition by Bagnasco De Toro It is organized into 6 major chapters entitled Battleships and Italian Naval Policy between the two World Wars Design and For its final battleship design Italy ignored all treaty restrictions on tonnage and produced one of Europe s largest and most powerful capital ships comparable with Germany s Bismarck class which were also built in defiance of international agreements The three ships of the Littorio class were fast and elegant but also boasted a revolutionary protective scheme which was tested to the limits as all three were heavily damaged in the hard fought naval war in th This is a very impressive piece of work one of the best monographs on a single type of warship that i have ever read and comes highly recommended History of War About the Author Ermino Bagnasco is the editor of St
