Fourteen papers explore a variety of inter disciplinary approaches to understanding the Viking past both in Scandinavia and in the Viking diaspora. Contributions employ both traditional inter or multi disciplinarian perspectives such as using historical sources Icelandic sagas and Eddic poetry and also specialised methodologies and or empirical studies place name research the history of religion and technological advancements such as isotope analysis. The Viking worlds presented here are generally homely ones a welcome corrective to the epic continent spanning narratives beloved of museums and the media. Tom Williams Landscape History This is a very interesting collection of new insights into the i
