By Frederick Bull : Aberdeens Around the World publication serving grays harbor offers local news weather and sports history and a teen section this represents an increase of almost 200000 in the decade since the 2001 census which recorded 5062011 people living in scotland in mid 2001 Aberdeens Around the World:

The Scots have been adventurers for centuries traveling to all corners of the world and taking the name of their home with them Scottish place names can be found on every continent and ‘Aberdeen’ appears from the Deep South of America to the prairies of Canada from the tropical islands of the Caribbean to the South America and Africa from the Bay of Bengal and ancient China to a lush valley in Australia. From the original Aberdeen in north east Scotland to the Author Frederick Bull was born in Aberdeen Scotland in 1936. He graduated from Gray’s School of Art Aberdeen as a landscape painter. His art has been exhibited at numerous galleries and his work is held in public and private collections both in the UK and abroad.
