1 of 1 review helpful If one s an aviation afficianado this book is worth the buy By Stanley P Stein Excellent biplane built by Fiat in Italy It served the Italian A F in its time was a superior aerobatic fighter bi plane Was used by Franco s

Spanish Nationalist forces and they gained air superiority with this aircraft 0 of 0 review helpful Five Stars By RenFan e The CR 32 Falco was a handsome and highly maneuverable bi plane fighter During General Franco's fight with the Republicans for the control of Spain from 1936-39 no fewer than 477 CR 32s were involved with an astounding 709 confirmed aerial victories and an additional 320 kills claimed against just 62 losses As these statistics reveal the CR 32 was the unrivaled master of the skies over Spain By the war's end the five leading aces of the conflict were all Spanish.
Detailed text lots of rare photos and a wide variety of color profiles illustrating many different and complex color schemes make this book a good value.
Air Classics
When you combine great prose with the superlative period photos
