0 of 0 review helpful Somewhat disappointing By Raphael A Riccio I had expected a somewhat more in depth treatment of each of the individuals covered in this book It struck me as mainly a sort of biographical background on each of the individuals rather than a description of the actions they were in and what they actually accomplished A good enough book rather easy to read but just not what I had expected 0 of 0 A vivid recount of the little known exploits of 17 courageous Special Operations Executive SOE officers in Italy during World War II An impressive and significant contribution to the historical record of SOE and No 1 Special Force in particular nbsp mdash General the Lord Guthrie of Craigiebank GCB LVO OBE DL Colonel Commandant SAS 2001 2010
