Negotiating Pasts in the Nordic Countries: Interdisciplinary Studies in History and Memory:

A contribution to the popular international and interdisciplinary field of collective memory within a Scandinavian context this reference presents a number of case studies — from the Middle Age to the present time — that discuss how people look to the past for identity and meaning. Acknowledging that many pasts exist — sometimes harmoniously and other times in conflict — this resource attempts to negotiate the past by About the Author Anne Eriksen is a professor of culture studies and oriental languages at the University of Oslo. Jøacuthe n Viethar Sigurðsson is a professor of archaeology, conservation and history at the University of Oslo.
