0 of 0 review helpful What a Find By Nora Tudor My only complaint is that the type was none too clear but it did warn about that and that it was legible enough for me 0 of 0 review helpful Good Family Tree Resource By John W Haley This is good if you are looking for family members of the Steen Family The printing is a little light though

which can be hard on the eye This book begun many years ago has been of gradual growth It was the writers first intention to prepare only a genealogical record of his fathers immediate family afterwards he midertook to enlarge its scope so as to include the descendants of his grandfather and then again at his fathers request he began to trace backward the line of ancestry as far as possible in order to connect the European with the American family In 1877 we visited Ireland Scotland Engl
